It was a rambunctious race for the inaugural race of Gyle Keating's new J36 Shingebiss. She is beautiful, sleek, and very, very swift. It was blowing...hard, and exciting to sail under reefed sails, heeling hard and sailing fast. Shingebiss and Radiant Heat took early leads, which they never relinquished. In the 10 mile race, they were home before noon! Gyle reported hitting speeds of 8 knots (without his carbon sails). Jim Raddysh shared the bottle of rum he won...
